

MIND, BRAIN AND EDUCATION: EMPOWERING EAL/D TEACHERS

29 July 2020 4.30pm
Tasmania time

Michelle Ocriciano

Understanding human behaviour in educational settings, particularly how the mind learns can greatly benefit the language professional. In this sense, being aware of what might help learners learn is pivotal in an ever-changing and demanding market.

This presentation will explore Mind, Brain and Education concepts that can be used in ELT and also deconstruct common and popular neuromyths.
